The Context Menu

If you click a document or a term with the right mouse button, a context menu will appear. Choose the menu item and the particular operation will be accomplished.

The context menu enables you an efficient working with Daffodil, by reducing procedures, for example it can be an alternative to the use of drag and drop or for other actions.